Singapore, 23 April 2015 – Soak in the vibrant atmosphere and be entertained by aspiring DJs as they showcase their skills at the inaugural Sentosa DJ Spin Off from this Sunday. Come 26 April and 3 May 2015 (Sunday), witness the journey of the next DJ talent as Wave House Sentosa is transformed to a spectacular party for music junkies and fun-lovers.

Making a debut this year, the Sentosa DJ Spin Off is the latest platform for local DJs to unleash their potential and a chance to spin at this year's Siloso Beach Party. Participants first prove their mettle in the heats on 26 April, where eight participants will be selected for the next round of competition. A winner will then be crowned on 3

May, as the top eight battle it out with their best mixes and the opportunity to perform at Asia's biggest beach countdown party along with cash prizes.

As part of the search for the next big thing in the industry, local pioneer DJs such as DJ Jensen, DJ Funky T and DJ Ollie'Des will be part of the talented judging panel at the finals. Having performed at various international events and clubs including the Siloso Beach Countdown Party, the judges aim to uncover the next local gem for the industry.

"I'm definitely looking forward to the first-ever DJ Spin Off at Sentosa this coming weekends! It is great for the local industry to have another platform where younger DJs get the opportunity to perform and outdo each other with a live audience. Some of the factors that the judges will be looking out for include how the contestants engage the audience, their stage presence and of course their creativity," said DJ Jensen.

Singapore's top youngest DJ – Charlotte Cheong, aged 18, is the ambassador of the event and also assisting in the selection of participants. Having started her DJ career at 12 years old, DJ Charlotte has performed at numerous events, including the launch of Linkin Park's album 'A Thousand Sun' by Warner Music and currently spins at several clubs including Azzura, Supperclub and Châteaux.

The Sentosa DJ Spin Off is one of two music events presented to you by Sentosa, The State of Fun, as part of the Sentosa Celebrates Music Festival from now till 19 May. Also organised by Sentosa as part of the festival is the Sentosa Ukulele Festival at Palawan Beach on 2 May, featuring live acoustic entertainment. Look out and come down for the other merry events held on Sentosa in conjunction with Sentosa Celebrates Music Festival such as the Beach Party Night on 25 April featuring Mondo Rock & Angry Anderson at Tanjong Beach Club; Beerkini Rocks at Bikini Bar on Siloso Beach on 9 May; and Full Steam Ahead at Tanjong Beach Club on 23 May.
