Singapore, 28 August 2023 – The Sentosa Food Truck Fiesta 2023 will return for a bigger, second edition with 10 food truck entrepreneurs joining the Fiesta for the first time! They will join four other local “hawkerpreneurs”, home-based bakers, and young culinary talents to serve up an array of tasty and affordable street food to revolutionise the culinary adventures of eventgoers. Taking place at the Palawan Green every Friday to Sunday, 5pm to 10pm from 1 to 17 September, the last signature event of Sentosa Food Fest 2023 will bring foodies on a gastronomical experience with elevated street food served with a twist.

For the first time this year, The Palawan Food Trucks located within The Palawan @ Sentosa and Gourmet Park at Resorts World Sentosa will join the food truck contingent at Palawan Green to make Sentosa the most eclectic and vibrant food truck scene in Singapore.

Supporting young culinary talents and “hawkerpreneurs”

Apart from enhancing the beach experience on Sentosa, the Sentosa Food Truck Fiesta also aims to be a springboard for young and aspiring food entrepreneurs to enter the food and beverage industry. One such example, which is also a key highlight of the food truck contingent at the Palawan Green, is the Singapore National Junior Culinary Team, a group of aspiring young chefs who have been crowned as the three-time Champion of the Alen Thong Golden Coffee Pot Challenge. Dig into a unique take on the humble Loaded Potatoes with toppings such as Braised Pulled Duck and Braised Pulled Pork by the team who will be representing Singapore at the upcoming IKA/Culinary Olympics 2024 taking place in Stuttgart, Germany next year.

Along with other young hawkerpreneurs, Kueh and Rolls is a new fast-food concept created by a group of polytechnic friends who will be debuting hearty Korean kimbaps (seaweed rice roll). A delectable Korean household snack, these kimbaps come in various fillings such as creamy tuna mayo and fluffy egg rolls. Those looking to spice up their night with authentic Asian flavours can elevate their dining experience with Nara Bear's mouthwatering Tom Yum Mama Noodles or Larb Kung (spicy shrimp salad).

Elevated street food with a twist

For a homely and traditional dish, look no further than Muslim-owned Kin Men Seng Heng's take on the Hokkien braised duck in their Signature Duck Rice Plate crafted by a third-generation Singaporean hawker. Crowne Plaza's food truck offers a new take on local favourites such as "Bak Chor" Meatball Rolls, Beef Satay Burger, and more.

Eventgoers can end their meal on a sweet note with delightful treats from SugarBellySG, showcasing Singapore's first sugar- and egg-free Pon De Ring Mochi Donuts, as well as artisanal brownies such as their Mao Shan Wang Durian Creme Brownie.
